The United States supreme court today set aside the three-months' jail sentence of the two officers of the American Naval Stores Company of Savannah, Ga., the so-called Turpentine Trust.

It also reversed the decision as to five other officers of the company, accused of combining to monopolize the turpentine industry.

Occupants of four hotels on Walnut street, Cincinnati, were seized with panic early today when fire destroyed a five-story building near by. No one was injured.

W. L. O'Brien, Kansas labor commissioner, has issued a call for 19,000 harvest hands. John Fitzpatrick, Missouri labor commissioner, is in Kansas City today making arrangements to cooperate with Kansas in obtaining the needed harvest hands. Fitzpatrick issued orders to the state free employment bureau of Kansas City, St. Joseph and St. Louis to get in touch with men willing to go to Kansas and work in the fields.

James McGowan, one of the eight detectives indicted in the Italian bunco case, may decide to confess before his trial, set for Monday morning. A report that he would tell the inside of police graft was circulated this morning. It is intimated he is holding out for an immunity, but Judge Lawlor denied a motion to allow the indicted detectives separate trials.

President Yuan Shih-kai of China and his premier, Chao Bing Kwan are suspected by the citizens of the Chinese republic of being the instigators of the assassination of Sung Chio Jen, senator-elect and minister of agriculture and forestry under Provisional President Dr. Sun Yat Sen. So strong have these suspicions become that the people are demanding the impeachment of the executive and his aid and their trials on charges of murder.

This sensational insight into affairs in the infant republic is contained in a letter from Peking, received at San Francisco today by prominent members of the local Chinese colony. While the authorship of the epistle is being withheld the recipient of the letter asserts that the writer's name, if disclosed, would alone vouch for the authenticity and reliability of the news.

Scotland Yard authorities today are considering prohibiting the big public funeral the militant suffragettes are arranging for Miss Emily Davison, who died from injuries after grasping the bride of King George's entry, Anmer, in the Derby.

It is feared that grave disorders may accompany the burial of the body of Miss Davison, whom the suffragettes ranked consider their first martyr.

The trials of the seven suffragettes arraigned in the police raid in their headquarters began in London today.
Mrs. Drummond, who is critically ill, was absent. All the defendants were sleeve bands of crepe in mourning for Miss Davison.

The entire northeast section of Springfield, Mo., was swept by a fire early today, which caused a financial loss estimated at $1,000,000 before it was controlled. Heer Dry Goods Company, in whose basement the fire started, was the heaviest loser, being damaged to the extent of $250,000.

Wireless dispatches received at New York at noon from the Cuban steamer Olinda, which was reported on fire at sea earlier in the day, stated all was well and that the vessel lay 525 miles south of Scotland Lightship. It is believed the vessel is en route either to Brunswick, Ga., or Savannah.

The insidious lobby charge already has had the intended effect and relieved President Wilson and United States senators and congressmen of a considerable burden.

This, in effect, was the statement made by President Wilson today in his semi-weekly audience with the newspaper correspondents. He believes many of the lobbyists already have run out of Washington and thinks "the breed" will be scarce during the senate consideration of the Underwood tariff bill.

That Australian beef is not as good or economical as the American product and that it does not comply with the San Francisco specifications, but that Australian mutton is better than the American article, is the substance of a report, on a test made of frozen meats, to the San Francisco supervisors. The city is in the market for supplies for the relief home.

Less than ten minutes after she had unloaded twenty excursionists at Va-lison island, the passenger launch Mignonne took fire and burned to the water's edge near Point Defiance, near Tacoma.

With his vessel enveloped in flames, A. J. Backler, master of the Mignonette, sent the launch adrift at full speed to the beach at the point, while large crowd of picnickers lined the shores to watch the spectacular race.

Preliminary plans to capture the convention of the imperial council of the Mystic Shriners in 1915 were laid Sunday at a meeting of the representatives from San Diego, Los Angeles, Oakland and San Francisco at the St.
Francis hotel, San Francisco, it was arranged to send a great California delegation to the council at Atlanta, Georgia, next year. The Shriners plan to charter a train, take possession of a whole hotel floor and give some unique demonstrations of advertising the fair city.

Impatience never brings anything nearer.
